UTKANTESHWAR MAHADEV TEMPLE:

Utkanteshwar Mahadev is a Shiva Temple in the Kheda district of Gujarat, India. The temple is 2000-year-old and is located on the bank of Vatrak. This ancient temple of Lord Shiva is near Atar Sumba village of Kapadwanj Tehsil and Kheda District.

DAKOR RANCHHODRAJI TEMPLE:

Lord Shiva agreed to his request. He disappeared and left behind him His replica in the form of Ban (Ling), which is known as Dank Nath Mahadev. Thus, in ancient times, Dakor was known as 'Dankor' after the name of Dankanth Mahadev. It was also known as khakhariya because of many khakhra (palash) trees in the vicinity.

NALSAROVAR (BIRD SENTURY):

The history of Nalsarovar dates back to the 15th century when the lake was created as a result of the construction of a check dam across the Sabarmati River. The lake was initially used for irrigation and as a source of drinking water for nearby villages.

LOTHAL, ARCHAEOLOGICAL REMAINS OF A HARPPA PORT-TOWN:

Lothal was one of the southernmost sites of the ancient Indus Valley civilization, located in the Bhal region of the Indian state of Gujarat. Construction of the city is believed to have begun around 2200 BCE

GANESHPURA (GANPATI TEMPLE, DHOLKA):

This temple is the history of folk story in Asadh vad-4 era of Vikram for the 933 on Sunday at the time of excavation in the land of kerda hathel Ganpatidada of jala, toda an idol of gold legs, ears in the ornament, which was published over the crown and kandora. Main Idol to take to the koth, rojaka and vankuta village leaders in faction.

BAHUCHRAJI TEMPLE:

According to the Bombay Gazetteer, the original shrine was built by a king called Sankhal Raj in 1152 CE and the first surviving mention of the shrine was found in an inscription dating 1280 CE. No major changes were made in the temple architecture until the eighteenth century.

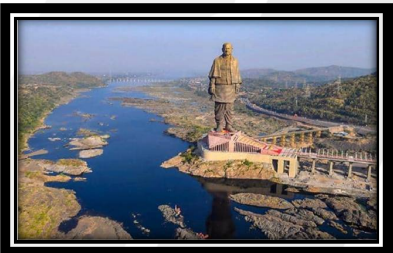

MODHERA SUN TEMPLE:

The Sun Temple of Modhera is a Hindu temple dedicated to the solar deity Surya located at Modhera village of Mehsana district, Gujarat, India. It is situated on the bank of the river Pushpavati. It was built after 1026-27 CE during the reign of Bhima I of the Chaulukya dynasty.

AKSHARDHAM, GANDHINAGAR:

Swaminarayan Akshardham in Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India is a large Hindu temple complex inspired by Yogiji Maharaj (1892–1971) the fourth spiritual successor of Swaminarayan, and created by Pramukh Swami Maharaj (1921–2016), the fifth spiritual successor of Swaminarayan according to the BAPS denomination of Swaminarayan ...

STATUE OF UNITY, KEVADIA:

The 182-metre (600 feet approx.) statue is dedicated to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the architect of independent India. The colossal monument towers over River Narmada, a tribute to India 'from the people of Gujarat' to the leader who placed people's welfare first.

AMBAJI TEMPLE:

Ambaji Mata Temple is a pilgrimage site visited by millions of devotees during the week of the Bhadarvi Poonam fair. It is one of the 51 Shakti Peethas.

DASADA MINI RANN (LITTLE RANN OF KUTCH):

Little rann of Kutch is a cousin of great rann of Kutch near Zainabad. The terrain is a bit different from the great rann. You won't see salt pans till horizon rather it is more like a dried-up marsh. This is an ideal place to see migratory birds and wild donkeys.

MOUNT ABU:

The name "Mount Abu" is a diminutive of its original name which was kept after Arbhuda. Another legend suggests that Sage Vashistha had performed a yajna at the peak of this very mountain range, seeking provision for the defense of righteousness on earth, from the Gods.

DWARKA:

Dwarka has also been referred to throughout its history as "Mokshapuri", "Dwarkamati", and "Dwarkavati". It is mentioned in the ancient prehistoric epic period of the Mahabharata. According to legend, Krishna settled here after he defeated and killed his uncle Kansa at Mathura.

SOMNATH (SHIV TEMPLE):

The site of Somnath has been a pilgrimage site from ancient times on account of being a Triveni Sangam: the confluence of three rivers namely Kapila, Hiran and Saraswati. The Gurjara-Pratihara king Nagabhata II recorded that he has visited tirthas in Saurashtra, including Someshwar, an alternative name for the temple.

SASAN GIR FOREST:

In the 19th century, the rulers of Indian princely states used to invite the British colonists for hunting expeditions. At the end of the 19th century, only about a dozen Asiatic lions were left in India, all of them in the Gir Forest, which was part of the Nawab of Junagarh's private hunting grounds.
